Competition Descriptions

There are four phases of competition in the Miss Libertyville Pageant: Personal Interview, Speech and Communication Skills, Physical Fitness and Beauty of Face, and Stage Presence.

- Personal Interview: This category of the competition will take place the evening prior to the actual "on stage" Pageant. Each contestant will be interviewed for six minutes by our panel of judges. Judges will score each contestant from 0-35 points. Contestants are required to wear a business suit and taupe heels. The judges will use this time as an opportunity to learn about each contestant, her personality, qualities and attributes. TIP: Use the techniques recommended to you in the Workshop – and then be your natural, enthusiastic self!
- Speech and Communication Skills: Each contestant will be required to deliver a one-minute rehearsed speech on any subject they choose as long as it is not political or controversial in nature. Since the majority of the Queen's job is to promote her village, how a contestant speaks and relates to a crowd is very important. Contestants are required to wear a business suit or conservative dress with taupe heels. Judges will award 0-30 points for this category. TIP: Put some thought into your speech so you feel well prepared as the competition approaches.
- Physical Fitness and Beauty of Face: Each contestant will appear on stage in a one-piece, solid color swimsuit and taupe heels. Judges will award each contestant from 0–20 points based on a contestant's proportion of figure, bone structure, muscle tone, posture, walk and facial beauty. Swimsuits MUST be one-piece, a solid color and very conservative. TIP: This category is a great chance to show the judges your poise and confidence.
- Stage Presence: Each contestant will model a floor length evening gown of her choice. Judges will award 0-15 points according to a contestant's grace, poise, and confidence. Each contestant, one at a time, will be called on stage to answer three surprise questions, mimicking a live broadcast interview. TIP: Here's your chance to really shine. Your gown should be formal and in good taste. The judges are looking for the candidate who they feel can best represent Libertyville by communicating effectively. This is your last opportunity to impress the judges.
